Greetings from Mississippi!

The weather is warming up, and summer is just around the corner. Summer is an exciting time to be in Mississippi, and the University of Mississippi's International Summer School is the perfect opportunity to engage with students, faculty, and the community in a charming Southern campus and town. In anticipation of summer, the University of Mississippi Division of Global Engagement would like to share information about its Summer 2017 programs. Below please find dates and costs for Intensive English opportunities.

INTENSIVE ENGLISH (IEP)  – Students enroll in 2 credit-bearing Intensive English courses designed for basic to advanced levels to prepare them for interaction in the English-speaking academic, social, and professional world.

IEP will administer a placement exam during orientation to determine student placement.*

Cultural excursions and activities are planned throughout the summer sessions to give students the opportunity to explore and discover Mississippi and the American South.
